

APPENDICES

A. From the Poet's First Collection, 1904-5

1 DEDICATED TO DEAR NANA CLARKE	1054
2 As rooms are separated by a curtain,	1054
3 OUR FLAG	1055
4 GOD	1056
5 THE RIVER OF MIST	1057

B. From the Cambridge Latin School Years, 1908-11

1 The world is very big, and we	1058
2 A chilly, murky night;	1059
3 THE PASSING OF THE YEAR	1060
4 EARLY SUMMER SKETCH	1061
5 SUMMER SONG	1063
6 IF	1064
7 THE EAGLE	1065
8 THE BOY AND THE MAN	1067
9 God, Thine the hand that doth extend	1068
10 MY PRAYER	1069
11 On souls robbed of their birth-right's better part,	1070
12 DEATH'S CHIMNEYS	1071
13 AFTER-GLOW	1072

C. Translations from Horace, 1913

1 Farewell, runaway snows! For the meadow is green, and the tree stands	1073
2 The fetters of winter are shattered, shattered,	1074
3 Ah, Postumus, fleet-footed are the years!	1075
4 Who chides the tears that weep so dear a head?	1076
5 O, blessed of the gods,	1077

Index of First Lines	1079
----------------------	------