

POEMS FROM THE 1920's

I

1	the newly	984
2	now two old ladies sit peacefully knitting,	985
3	"out of the pants which cover me	986
4	pound pound pound	987
5	2 shes	988

II

1	When parsing warmths of dusk construe	990
2	Lady,since your footstep	991
3	being(just a little)	992
4	Lady	993

III

1	THE RAIN IS A HANDSOME ANIMAL	994
2	AFTER SEEING FRENCH FUNERAL	995
3	taxis toot whirl people moving perhaps laugh into the slowly	996
4	long ago,between a dream and a dream	997
5	them which despair	998
6	Paris,thou art not	999
7	Perfectly a year,we watched together les enfants jumping and	1000
8	look	1002
9	when of your eyes one smile entirely brings down	1003
10	this fear is no longer dear. You are not going to America and	1004

IV

1	the other guineahen	1005
2	love's absence is illusion,alias time	1006
3	Float	1007
4	birds meet above the new Moon	1008
5	tonight the moon is round golden entire. It	1009

LATE POEMS, 1930-62

I

1	this(a up green hugestness who and climbs)	1010
2	cont)-	1011
3	mary green	1012
4	lively and loathesome moe's respectably dead	1013
5	"think of it: not so long ago	1014
6	out of bigg	1015

II

1	the phonograph may(if it likes)be prophe	1016
2	in hammamet did camping queers et al)	1017
3	bud(spiggy nuvduh fienus	1018