

the skinny voice

of the leatherfaced woman with the crimson nose and coquettishly-
cocked bonnet

having ceased the captain announces that as three dimes seven nickels and ten pennies have been deposited upon the drum there is need of just twenty five cents dear friends

to make it an even dollar whereupon

the Divine Average who was attracted by the inspired sister's howling moves off will anyone tell him why he should blow two bits for the coming of Christ Jesus
