

xx slightly before the middle of Congressman Pudd	247
xxi ode	248
xxii on the Madam's best april the	249
xxiii (as that named Fred	250
xxiv my uncle	251
xxv than(by yon sunset's wintry glow	252
xxvi weazened Irrefutable unastonished	253
xxvii MEMORABILIA	254
xxviii a man who had fallen among thieves	256
xxix this evangelist	257
xxx (ponder,darling,these busted statues	258
xxxi poets yeggs and thirsties	259
xxxii Will i ever forget that precarious moment?	260
xxxiii voices to voices,lip to lip	262
xxxiv life hurl my	263

TWO

i the season 'tis,my lovely lambs,	265
ii opening of the chambers close	266
iii "next to of course god america i	267
iv it's jolly	268
v look at this)	269
vi first Jock he	270
vii lis	271
viii come,gaze with me upon this dome	272
ix 16 heures	273
x my sweet old etcetera	275

THREE

i now that fierce few	277
ii Among these
red pieces of	278
iii it is winter a moon in the afternoon	279
iv candles and	280
v will out of the kindness of their hearts a few philosophers tell me	281
vi but observe;although	282
vii sunlight was over	283

FOUR

i the moon looked into my window	285
ii if being mortised with a dream	286
iii here's a little mouse)and	287